the club and the inn

For more than 75 years, the Washington Athletic Club has been an oasis in the heart of downtown Seattle, catering to the athletic and hospitality needs of its members. The Inn at the WAC has been an integral part of the Club since its inception.

The Inn offers a high level of personalized service and in-room amenities. We offer a central downtown location with the exclusivity and security that only a private club can ensure.

Several of the Club's public areas are graced with works of art by notable Northwest artists, such as Mark Tobey, Jacob Lawrence, Kurt Solmssen and Dale Chihuly.

And then there's the food. From the casual atmosphere of the 8th Floor Sports Cafe, to the upscale sports bar and game rooms of Hagerty's, to the world-class wines and seasonally fresh cuisine of Torch's, you'll find it all under one roof at the WAC.

The beautiful, intimate surroundings of the Spa at the WAC provide the perfect urban escape. Indulge in various relaxing and rejuvenating services, including massage, luxury skin care, medi-spa and salon services for men and women.

getting here

The WAC is located in downtown Seattle on Sixth Avenue, between Union and University streets. WAC Parking is available one block north of the Clubhouse, just past Union on the left. Please call our concierge for driving directions or transportation arrangements.
